66L. (1) The Corporation of Calcutta may, after giving notice to the Commissioners and the owner of such building or structure in the manner provided in section 66D, at any time amend the assessment-book, by inserting therein—

- (a) the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted ; or
- (b) the description of any building or structure hereinbefore mentioned liable to any such rate ; or
- (c) the valuation, when such building or structure has not already been valued.

(2) The Corporation of Calcutta may, without notice, strike out the name of any person or the description of any building or structure not liable to the rate, or may reduce the amount of the valuation.

(3) All such changes shall be notified to the Commissioners, and to the owner of the building or structure in the manner provided in section 66K ; and the provisions of sections 66G, 66H, 66I, and 66J shall, so far as may be practicable, apply,

66M. (1) The Commissioners shall, during the first month of each quarter succeeding quarter, pay to the Corporation of Calcutta the consolidated rate so assessed for the previous quarter for such portion of the Commissioners' land as was occupied by each tenant and the liability for rent incurred :

Provided that, unless notice of the termination of tenancy during a quarter, has been given by the Commissioners to the Corporation of Calcutta within one month of such termination, the Commissioners shall be liable for the whole consolidated rate assessed in respect of such quarter.

(2) Before paying the consolidated rate assessed to the Corporation of Calcutta, the Commissioners shall deduct and retain a sum equal to one-eighth of such rate:

PART V.ô Of the Estimates of Income, Expenditure and Audit.

69. (1) The [Chairman] shall, at a special meeting to be held in the month of February in each year, lay before the Commissioners an estimate of the income and of the expenditure of the Commissioners for the year commencing on the first day of April then next ensuing, in such detail and form as the [Central Government] shall, from time to time, direct.

(2) Such estimate shall be completed and printed, and a copy thereof sent by post or otherwise to each Commissioner at least ten clear days prior to the meeting before which the estimate is to be laid.

70. The Commissioners in meeting shall consider the estimate as submitted to them, and shall sanction the same either unaltered or subject to such alterations as they shall think fit.

71. (1) The estimate as sanctioned by the Commissioners shall, not later than the first day of March next following, be submitted to the [Central Government], who may, at any time prior to the first day of April next following, either disallow or modify such estimate, or any portion thereof, and return the same for amendment.

(2) The Commissioners shall, if the estimate is so returned, forthwith proceed to amend the same; and shall re-submit the estimate so amended to the [Central Government], sea-going vessels, but also by their servants or agents to put the petroleum out of the hold and overside such vessels :

Provided [further] that the Commissioners shall not be bound to land, ship or move any single article or package exceeding thirty tons or twenty hundredweight in weight except at such special charge as may be agreed on in respect of such article or package :

²Provided also that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners in meeting in special cases to permit goods to be landed from, or shipped upon, any such sea-going vessel by persons other than the employees or agents of the Commissioners.

¹(2)The Commissioners may also maintain and use lighters for the purpose of landing and shipment of goods between sea-going vessels at the port and the docks, wharves, quays, stages, jetties or piers erected by them.

91. (1) Whenever any goods shall be landed by the Commissioners from any vessel under the powers by this Act conferred on them, they shall if thereunto required, give to the person in charge of such vessel a receipt in the form or to the effect prescribed in the "[Second] Schedule; and may, in any such receipt, include all goods landed from such vessel during one day.

Commissioners to grant receipts for goods landed by them.

(2) No person to whom such receipt shall have been so given, nor the master nor owner of the vessel from which the goods in respect of which such receipt shall be given may have been landed, shall be liable for any loss or damage to such goods which may occur after they shall have been so landed.

Liability for loss, etc., of goods to cease when once landed.

92. When any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier, erected under the provisions of this Act, shall have been made and completed, together with sufficient warehouses, sheds, cranes, and moorings for landing and shipment, or for landing or for shipment of goods from and upon sea-going vessels, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners by a notification published in three consecutive numbers of the 'Official Gazette' to declare that such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier is ready for receiving, landing and shipment, or for landing or for shipment of goods from and upon sea-going vessels.

(Chapter IV.—Of the General Powers of the Commission. Part V (II.—Of the Loading and Shipment of Goods. Sections 93, 94.)

Commissioners may order sea-going vessels to load or unload at docks, etc., when accommodation available.

93. From and after such notification and publication, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners from time to time, when there shall be room at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier, to order to come alongside of such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier for the purpose of being laden or unladen by the Commissioners, any sea-going vessel which shall not have commenced to discharge goods, or which, being about to take in goods, shall not have commenced to take in goods :

Provided that if the Commissioners are not the Conservator of the Port, they shall not themselves make the order as aforesaid but shall require the Conservator of the Port, or other person exercising the rights, powers and authorities of the Conservator of the Port, to make such order.

94. If, after such order of the Commissioners or as the case may be, the Conservator of the Port or other person aforesaid the owner or master of any such vessel shall either take in or discharge goods, save and except that such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier to which such vessel shall have been so ordered,

95. Without the express sanction of the Commissioners in meeting and except in accordance with the conditions which the Commissioners in meeting may by resolution prescribe, no goods shall be landed or shipped from or upon any sea-going vessel within the port save at the docks, wharves, quays, stages, jetties or piers erected under this Act.

Power to direct goods not to be landed from or shipped upon seagoing vessels, save at docks, etc., created by Commissioners.

96. Whoever shall, after such order has been so published as aforesaid, land or ship, or attempt to land or ship, any goods in contravention of such order, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every day that he shall so land or ship any goods in contravention of the said order :

Penally for landing or shipping goods after publication of order.

Provided that, notwithstanding anything in this or in sections 92, 93 and 94 contained, it shall be lawful for the [Central Government] by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time, if it shall so think fit, to declare that certain specified vessels or classes of vessels shall be permitted to discharge or ship goods or that certain specified goods or classes of goods shall be permitted to be landed or shipped elsewhere, and at such part of the Port of Calcutta and for such time and on such conditions as it may think fit.

97. (J) When any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier for receiving, landing or shipment of goods from vessels (not being seagoing vessels) shall have been made and completed with all proper appliances in that behalf, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners in meeting * * * * by an order published in three consecutive numbers of the Official Gazette, to declare that such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier is ready for receiving, landing or shipment of goods from vessels (not being sea-going vessels),'

Commissioners to declare when docks, etc., are ready for landing goods from inland vessels.

and in the same way '[with the sanction of the^T(Central Government)] to order that, within certain prescribed limits to be therein specified in that behalf, it shall not be lawful, without the express sanction of the Commissioner, to land or ship any goods out of, or into, any vessel (not being a sea-going vessel) of any class specified in such order, except at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier.

(2) And, by an order in like manner published, to alter, vary or revoke any such order.

Suit may be instituted for award or compensation.

98. Whenever any order made and published under sections 95 and 97 shall have the effect of rendering it unlawful to land or ship any goods out of, or into, any vessel at any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier lawfully made, erected or fixed by any person for the convenience of private traffic, or to which a prescriptive right may have been acquired by possession of sixty years or upwards, such person, his representatives or assigns, shall be entitled to institute a civil suit for the award of compensation to him for the injury caused by the order hereinbefore mentioned :

Provided that, in awarding such compensation, the Court shall not take into consideration any tolls, dues, rates or charges which the aforesaid person claiming compensation shall be liable to pay for using the wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier provided by the Commissioners for public use:

Provided also that it shall be lawful for the Commissioner, in lieu of closing any wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier under either of the said sections, to allow the continued use thereof on payment of such scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges as may be agreed upon between the owners thereof and the Commissioners.

Goods not to be landed from inland vessels save at docks, etc.

99- (/) After the publication of the order mentioned in section 97 of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any vessel of such class to land or ship any goods at any place within the limits so specified except at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier; nor for any such vessel, while within such limits, to anchor, fasten or lie within fifty yards of the ordinary low-water-mark without the consent of the Commissioners.

Penalty for breach of provisions.

(2) Any person guilty of any breach of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every such breach.

(Chapter IV.—Of the General Powers of the Commission.—Part VIII.—Of the Landing and Shipment of Goods.—Sections 100—102.—Part IX.—Of Levying Tolls and Rates.—Sections 103—104.)

100. IF, after the publication of the order mentioned in section 97 of this Act, any such vessels shall, within such limits, so anchor, fasten or lie, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to cause the same to be removed out of the said limits ; and it shall be the duty of the Conservator of the Port to aid and assist the Commissioners in so removing such vessel.

Power to remove vessels lying within wharfy yards or low-water-mark.

101. The Commissioners may, by notice in writing, order the master, owner or agent of any vessel to remove such vessel from any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier belonging to the Commissioners.

Commissioners may require masters to remove vessels from docks, etc. Power to charge vessels for use of docks, etc., after service of notice for their removal.

102. Unless such vessel shall be removed therefrom within thirty-six hours after service of such notice on the officer in charge of such vessel, or the master, owner or agent thereof, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner in charge, in respect of such vessel for the use by such vessel of such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier, such sum not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day of twenty-four hours, or portion of such day, after the expiry of such thirty-six hours, during which such vessel shall remain at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier as to the Commissioners shall seem fit.

PART IX. — Of Levying Tolls and Rates.

103. The Commissioners shall frame a scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods from and into seagoing vessels at the docks, wharves, quays, stages, Jetties and piers belonging to the Commissioners, and for the use thereof by such vessels, and for the storing and keeping of any goods stored in any premises belonging to them, and for the removal of goods, and for the use of any moorings laid down or acquired by the Commissioners, and for the towage of vessels by the steam-vessels of the Commissioners in the Port,

Commissioners to frame scale of tolls etc. for landing goods from seagoing vessels.

104. The Commissioners shall also frame a scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods into and out of any vessel (not being a sea-going vessel) ;

Commissioners to frame scale of tolls, etc. for landing goods into inland vessels.

respect of vessels which are liable to pay port dues under the provisions of Schedule I of the Indian Ports Act, 1889."

107. (l) Such scales of tolls, dues, rates and charges shall be adopted by the Commissioners in meeting, and shall be submitted to the ^l[Central Government] ; and after receiving its approval shall be published by the Commissioners in the ^j[Official Gazette], and may from time to time, subject to the like approval and publication, be in like manner altered.

In framing scales under the foregoing provisions, the Commissioners in meeting may prescribe a lower rate of charges in respect of cargo carried in a vessel from one Indian port to another.

*Explanation.*⁶ For the purposes of this section, the expression, "Indian port" includes the ports of Diu, Daman, Marmagao, Panjim, Mahe, Karaikal and Pondichery.]

(2) It shall also be competent to the ^l[Central Government] at any time to cancel any of the scales framed under sections 103 to 106 (both inclusive), or to call upon the Commissioners to modify any portion of such scales ; and thereupon the Commissioners in meeting shall modify such scales accordingly.

108. ⁱ[The Commissioners may from time to time] charge upon all ⁷for any portion or description of] goods landed from or shipped into any ^k[sea-going] vessel lying or being within the limits of the port ^a[or of the port approaches], whether such goods shall or shall not be so

(2) If any owner, without any default on the part of the Commissioners, fail to remove any goods [other than those stored in warehouses licensed under section 16 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878], from the premises of the Commissioners within [Five] clear working days from the time of landing, such goods shall remain on the premises at the sole risk and expense of the owner. -

114. (1) Whenever the owner of any goods [other than those stored in warehouses licensed under section 16 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878,] fails to remove the same within the time specified in the last preceding section, the Commissioners shall give notice to the consignee or owner of such goods, if his address be known, by letter sent by post to such address or left thereat, that all liability which the Commissioners may have hitherto incurred in respect of such goods has ceased ;

(2) and shall also publish in one or more daily newspapers notice of the expiry of such liability ; and shall specify therein the numbers, marks and descriptions of such goods, so far as the same may appear.

115. In case the said goods [other than those stored in warehouses licensed under section 16 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878,] shall be removed to the public warehouses, then the consignee or owner shall be liable to the charges for warehousing goods in such public warehouses; and goods shall remain subject to all liens to which they would have been liable if they had remained in the possession of the Commissioners, and to the power of sale hereinafter given.

Liability of consignee or owner with respect to goods stored in public warehouses.

116. (1) If the master or owner of any vessel, or his agent, at or before the time of landing from such vessel and goods at any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty or pier belonging to the Commissioners shall give to the Commissioners notice in writing that such goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight or other charges payable to the shipowner, to an amount to be mentioned in such notice, such goods, shall continue liable to the same lien (if any) for such charges as they were subject to before the landing thereof.

Lien for freight preserved after landing of goods, if notice of lien be given.

(2) Such goods shall be retained either in the warehouses and sheds of the Commissioners or in warehouses licensed under section 16 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, or with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, in the public warehouses at the risk and expense of the owners of the goods, until the lien is discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

Goods to be retained in warehouses and sheds until discharge of lien.

117. Upon the production to the [employee] of the Commissioners in that behalf of a document purporting to be a receipt for the amount claimed as due, or a release of freight, from the person by or on whose behalf such notice shall have been given, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to permit such goods to be removed without regard to such lien :

Commissioners may permit goods to be removed without regard to lien.

Provided they shall have used reasonable care in respect to the authenticity of such document.

118. If the tolls, dues, rates and charges payable to the Commissioners in respect of any goods under this Act are not paid, or if the lien of the shipowner for freight, where such notice as aforesaid has been given, is not discharged.

Power of Commissioners to sell goods by public auction.

¹See foot-note 2 on page 74. ante.

²Section 116 was substituted for the former section by s. 5 of the Calcutta Port (Amendment No. II) Act, 1895 (Ben. Act VI of 1895).

twenty-four hours after the landing of the goods as they shall think fit, sell by public auction the said goods, or so much as may be necessary to satisfy the amounts hereinafter directed to be paid out of the produce of such sale.

119. (7) Before making such sale, ten days' notice of the same shall be given by publication thereof in the 'Calcutta Gazette], unless the goods are of so perishable a nature as, in the opinion of the ³[employee] of the Commissioners in that behalf, to render immediate sale necessary or advisable, in which event such notice shall be given as the urgency of the case admits of.

No notice to be given before sale of goods.

(2) If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the goods or in any of the documents which have come into the hands of the Commissioners, or is otherwise known, notice shall also be given to the owner of the goods by letter delivered at such address or sent by the post;

Notice to be given to owner by letter if address be known.

but the title of a bona fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send the notice hereinbefore mentioned, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to inquire whether such notice has been sent.

Disposal of goods not removed from the premises of the Commissioners within time limited.

¹119A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where any goods placed in the custody of the Commissioners upon the landing thereof are not removed by the owner or other person entitled thereto from the premises of the Commissioners within one month from the date on which such goods were placed in their custody, the Commissioners may, if the address of such owner or person is known, cause a notice to be served upon him by letter delivered at such address or sent by post, or if the notice cannot be served upon him or his address is not known, cause a notice to be published in the Official Gazette and also in at least one of the principal local daily newspapers, requiring him to remove the goods forthwith and stating that in default of compliance therewith the goods are liable to be sold by public auction :

Provided that where all the rates and charges payable under this Act in respect of any such goods have been paid, no notice or removal shall be so served or published under this sub-section unless two months have expired from the date on which the goods were placed in the custody of the Commissioners.

(2) If such owner or person does not comply with the requisition in the notice served upon him or published under sub-section (J), the Commissioners may, at any time after the expiration of one month from the date on which the notice was so served or published, sell the goods by public auction after giving notice of the sale in the manner prescribed in section 119.

(3) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any goods or class of goods from the operation of this section.

120. (1) [In the case of any sale under section 118 or section 119A], the moneys received from the sale shall be applied as follows:

- (a) in payment of the expenses of the sale ;
- (b) in payment, according to their respective priorities, of the liens and claims excepted in section 111 from the priority of the liens of the Commissioners for tolls, rates and dues; and
- (c) in payment of the tolls, charges and expenses of landing, removing, storing or warehousing the same, and of all other charges due to the Commissioners under this Act in respect thereof.

(2) The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the importer, owner or consignee of the goods, or to his agent, on his applying for the same :

Provided that such application be made within one year from the sale of the goods, or good reason be shown why such application was not so made to the satisfaction of the Commissioners; and in case such application shall not be so made, nor reason shown, such surplus shall be held by the Commissioners upon trust for the purposes of this Act.

Application of proceeds of sale.

Surplus or sale-proceeds to whom to be paid.

121. If the master of any vessel in respect of which any tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges shall be payable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same or any part thereof on demand, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to apply to the Collector of Customs of the Port of Calcutta ; and such Collector shall distrain or arrest of his own authority such vessel, and the tackle, apparel and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount so due to the Commissioners shall be paid ;

and in case any part of the said tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges, or of the cost of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after ; my such distress or arrestment shall have been so made, the Collector of Customs may cause the vessel or other things so distrained or arrested to be sold ;

and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy such tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges, and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid ; rendering the surplus (if any) to the master of such vessel on demand,

122. If the Commissioners shall give to the [officer of the Government], whose duty it shall be to grant the port clearance of any vessel, a notice stating that an amount therein specified is due in respect of tolls, dues, rates or charges, or penalties chargeable under this Act or any by-laws, rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, against such vessel, or the owner or master of such vessel in respect thereof, or against or in respect of any goods on board such vessel, such officer shall not grant such port clearance until the amount so chargeable shall have been paid.

122A. (J) All warehouses of the Port Commissioners shall be deemed to be private warehouses and capable of being licensed as such under section 16 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 ; and all the provisions of that Act relating to licensed private warehouses shall be applicable to all such warehouses.

The words "officer of the Crown" were originally substituted for the words "officer of Government" in para. 3 and Sch. IV in the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Law) Order, 1937. and thereafter the word "Government" was substituted for the word "Crown" by paragraph 1(7) of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
