9. Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 3 and section 30 the functions of the Commissioners shall be—

Functions of Commissioners.

- (a) to construct bridge or bridges across the river Hooghly, according to such design, of such materials and quality, and at such place or places together with such approaches, as the Commissioners may, subject to the approval of the State Government, consider suitable; and
- (b) to maintain, control and improve such bridge or bridges together with the approaches.

10. (1) The Commissioners may, with the previous approval of the State Government and subject to such terms and conditions as the State Government may think fit to impose, raise such loans as are necessary for carrying out their functions under this Act.

Power to raise loans.

(2) All loans raised under sub-section (1) shall be guaranteed by the State Government as to repayment of principal and payment of interest at such rate as the State Government may, in consultation with the Commissioners, fix at the time the loan is raised.

"11. (1) The Commissioners may, for the purpose of carrying out their functions under this Act, levy tolls on all types of vehicles and animals passing over or through any bridge constructed under this Act at such rates as may be determined by the State Government from time to time:

¹Section II was substituted for the original section by s. 2 of the Hooghly River Bridge (Amendment) Act, 1992 (West Ben. Act XX of 1992).

(Sections 12, 13.)

Provided that no toll shall be levied on any military or police vehicle, vehicle belonging to the Commissioners, ambulance belonging to any local authority or hospital, fire-fighting vehicle, vehicle of any Member of Parliament or Legislative Assembly, vehicle of any Judge of the Supreme Court of India or the High Court, vehicle of the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor of the Calcutta Municipal Corporation or the Howrah Municipal Corporation, or vehicle of such officer or officers of the State Government as may be authorized by the State Government in this behalf, and vehicles of such other persons as may be notified by the State Government, using such bridge on duty.]

(2) For the purpose of levy of tolls under sub-section (1), the Commissioners may establish such number of toll-bars as they may consider necessary, and may undertake collection of tolls through such officers or agents as may be appointed by them in this behalf:

Provided that no agent shall be appointed for the purpose as aforesaid except with the prior approval of the State Government.

Table of tolls to be published and hung up.

12. The Commissioners shall, by notification, publish a table of tolls to be levied under sub-section (1) of section 11 and shall cause copies of such table legibly written in English, Bengali and Hindi to be hung up in some conspicuous place near every toll-bar for the information of all persons required to pay such tolls.

Power for recovery of tolls.

13. (1) Any person appointed to collect tolls may refuse any vehicle or animal to pass through a toll-bar until the toll due on such vehicle or animal, as the case may be, has been paid.

(2) If the toll due on any vehicle or animal is not paid on demand the person appointed to collect the same may, without prejudice to the liability of any person for prosecution under any provision of this Act, seize the vehicle or animal, or such part of its load, if any, as may be sufficient in value to defray the toll, and if any toll remains unpaid for twenty-four hours, with the cost arising from such seizure* the case shall be brought before such officer as may be appointed by the Commissioners to superintend the collection of the said toll, who may, after issue of notice to hold a sale by auction not later than noon of the third following day, exclusive of Sunday or any closed holiday, sell the property seized for discharge of the toll and all expenses occasioned by such nonpayment, seizure and sale and cause any balance that may remain, to be returned, on demand, to the owner of the property:

Provided that if at any time before the sale has been concluded, the person whose property has been seized lends to the officer holding the sale, the amount of all the expenses incurred and double the toll payable, the said officer shall forthwith release the property seized.

*Words within the square brackets were substituted for the words "or fire-fighting vehicle, using such bridge on duty." by s. 2 of the Hooghly River Bridge (Amendment) Act, 1991 (West Ben. Act X of 1991).

(Sections 14-18.)
